

EPF to promote ethical business practices

KUALA LUMPUR: The Employees Provident Fund (EPF), with its wholly-owned subsidiary Kwasa Land Sdn Bhd, have signed the corporate integrity pledge (CIP) to promote ethical business practices. The CIP is a platform for companies to contribute towards anti-corruption initiatives, said Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission deputy chief commissioner Datuk Seri Mustafar Ali. EPF said it viewed the issue of integrity seriously as it was the custodian of more than 14 million members' retirement savings with total investment assets amounting to RM667.21 billion.
