

EPF, Kwasa land sign corporate integrity pledge

KUALA LUMPUR: The Employees Provident Fund (EPF) and its unit, Kwasa Land Sdn Bhd, have signed the Corporate Integrity Pledge to uphold ethical business practices.

In a joint statement yesterday, EPF and Kwasa Land said, this was essential to create a business and operating environment that was transparent and adhered to global standards of governance.

EPF Chairman, Tan Sri Samsudin Osman, said the signing and reading of the pledge augmented the commitment by the fund and Kwasa Land to uphold integrity.

"EPF views the issue of integrity seriously as it involves the credibility of the fund as the custodian of over 14 million members' retirement savings with total investment assets amounting to RM667.21 billion," he said.

Prior to this event, Kwasa Land, the master developer of Kwasa Damansara township, had carried out an awareness programme with Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) to institutionalise the culture of integrity among its staff. MACC Deputy Chief Commissioner (Prevention), Datuk Seri Mustafar Ali, said the pledge was an important platform for companies to contribute towards anti-corruption initiatives in the country.

"We are pleased the EPF and Kwasa Land have taken this step forward to ensure their businesses and operations are in accordance with the highest principles of integrity," it said. — Bernama
