KUALA LUMPUR: The Employees Provident Fund (EPF), together with its wholly-owned subsidiary Kwasa Land Sdn Bhd, have signed a corporate integrity pledge (CIP) as a continuous effort to uphold ethical business practices in line with global best practices in governance.

EPF chief executive officer Datuk Shahril Ridza Ridzuan and Kwasa Land managing director Datuk Mohd Lotfy Mohd Noh completed the signing of the pledge, witnessed by Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) deputy chief commissioner (prevention) Datuk Seri Mustafar Ali and EPF chairman Tan Sri Samsudin Osman. "The signing and reading of the pledge augment the commitment by the EPF and Kwasa Land to uphold integrity. This is essential to create a business and operating environment that is transparent and adheres to global standards of governance," Samsudin said in a statement yesterday.

He added that the EPF views the issue of integrity seriously as it involves the credibility of the EPF as the custodian of more than 14 million members' retirement savings with total investment assets amounting to RM667.21 billion.
