

Publication: Edge Property

Date: 2 June 2020

Headline: EPF's Kwasa Land appoints K C Yam as Chairman

EPF's Kwasa Land appoints K C Yam as chairman

KUALA LUMPUR (June 2): Kwasa Land Sdn Bhd, the wholly-owned local property development arm of the Employees Provident Fund (EPF), has named Datuk Seri Michael K C Yam (pictured) as its new chairman, effective today.

The building engineer by training has been a director of Kwasa Land since 2011. He is taking over the position from Tan Sri Samsudin Osman following the latter's retirement, the company said in a statement today.

The new chairman brings with him 35 years of experience in the construction, real estate and corporate sectors, having served leading positions in companies like the listed UEM Sunrise Bid and Country Heights Holdings Bhd, as well as renowned names like Landmarks Bhd and Peremba Malaysia.

In these capacities, he led the development and management of integrated and township mixed developments, hotels, resorts, shopping malls, golf courses and international schools in Malaysia, Australia, UK, Mauritius and South Africa.